Date of the Programme: 21st & 22nd January, 2019

Venue: Hazi A. K. Khan College Campus

No of Participants: 21

Brief Description:

The two-day event, spanning 21st and 22nd January 2019, was a vibrant mix of cultural performances and interactive sessions. The first day was dedicated to welcoming the freshers, where seniors and faculty members extended their greetings and shared insights about college life. This was followed by an ice-breaking session to foster camaraderie among students.

The second day witnessed an array of cultural performances, including dance, music, and drama, reflecting the rich cultural tapestry of the region. Students showcased their talents, and the event also featured guest performances, adding to the festive spirit. The program concluded with a formal speech by Dr. Chandrani Pal, teacher-in-charge emphasizing the importance of education and co-curricular activities in personal development.

Outcome:

- Enhanced social integration of new students, easing their transition into college life.
- Fostered a sense of belonging and community among students from diverse backgrounds.
- Encouraged the development of interpersonal skills through interaction and participation in cultural activities.
- Provided a platform for students to showcase their talents, boosting their confidence and creativity.
- The "Freshers' Welcome and Cultural Programme" successfully achieved its objectives, setting a positive tone for the academic year and fostering a vibrant and inclusive campus environment.
