Programme Name: Celebration of World Logic Day

Programme Date: 14th January, 2023

Venue: Hazi A.K. Khan College

No. of Participants: 29

Brief Description:

The Department of Philosophy at Hazi A.K. Khan College organized a thought-provoking celebration of World Logic Day on 14th January 2023. The event aimed to delve into the fundamental aspects of logic, exploring its significance in philosophy and its broader applications in various fields. The college campus buzzed with intellectual discussions, engaging workshops, and interactive sessions as students and faculty delved into the world of reasoning and rationality.

The celebration commenced with an inaugural address by a distinguished philosopher, setting the tone for the day's events. Workshops and seminars covered diverse topics, ranging from classical logic to modern developments, sparking interest and curiosity among participants from different academic backgrounds.

Objectives:

- The primary objective was to promote philosophical inquiry into the nature and principles of logic, fostering a deeper understanding of its role in critical thinking.
- To encourage students to explore the philosophical underpinnings of logic and its implications for various areas of study.
- To highlight the practical applications of logic in everyday life, emphasizing its role in decision-making, problem-solving, and ethical reasoning.
- To bridge the gap between abstract philosophical concepts and their manifestation in real-world scenarios, making logic more accessible to participants.
- To encourage interdisciplinary discussions and collaborations among students and faculty, exploring the intersection of logic with other academic disciplines.

Outcomes:

- Participants gained a deeper understanding of philosophical logic, its historical development, and its relevance in contemporary philosophical discourse.
- Workshops and interactive sessions facilitated the practical application of logical principles, enabling participants to recognize and apply logical reasoning in various aspects of their academic and personal lives.
- The event successfully fostered interdisciplinary collaboration, with students and faculty from diverse departments actively participating in discussions and workshops.
