ON
"CULTURAL LANDSCAPES: INTERACTIONS BETWEEN PEOPLE
AND THEIR ENVIRONMENT"

Organised by: Department of Geography, Hazi A.K. Khan College Under the Guidance of IQAC

DATE: 01.06.2024

TIME: 11.30 A.M

VENUE: SMART CLASS ROOM 1, HAZI A.K. KHAN COLLEGE

Objectives:

The main objectives of the seminar were to:

- Increase awareness among participants about the significance of cultural landscapes and their dynamic interactions with the environment.
- Provide a comprehensive understanding of the historical and contemporary relationships between human societies and their surroundings.
- Emphasize the role of cultural practices and traditions in shaping the environment.
- Explore the impacts of environmental changes on cultural landscapes.
- Discuss strategies for preserving and enhancing cultural landscapes in the face of modern challenges.
- Encourage participants to adopt practices that protect and promote cultural landscapes.

Brief Description:

A one-day student seminar on “Cultural Landscapes: Interactions Between People and Their Environment” was organized by the Department of Geography on 01.06.2024 at Smart Class Room 1, Hazi A.K. Khan College. The seminar was chaired by Bubai Ghosh, Faculty of the Department of Geography, Hazi A. K. Khan College.

The seminar commenced at 11:30 A.M. with a welcome address by Sri Prottyus Kumar Ghosh, HOD, Department of Geography. The chairperson, Bubai Ghosh, then delivered the inaugural speech, setting the tone for the seminar.

Following the inaugural speech, the seminar featured a presentation session where students presented their papers related to the theme of cultural landscapes and their interactions with the environment. The presentations sparked informed discussions and collaborative thinking on how cultural practices influence and are influenced by the natural environment.

The seminar concluded with a warm vote of thanks by Sri Parimal Karmakar, Faculty, Department of Geography. The seminar successfully achieved its objectives of raising awareness, educating participants about the intricate connections between culture and environment, and promoting sustainable practices that respect and enhance cultural landscapes. Furthermore, it inspired participants to engage actively in preserving and nurturing their cultural and environmental heritage, fostering a network for ongoing collaboration.

Outcomes of the Seminar:

- ✓ Increased awareness among participants about the significance of cultural landscapes and their dynamic interactions with the environment.
- ✓ Enhanced knowledge about the impact of human activities on cultural landscapes and the environment.
- ✓ Promoted interdisciplinary discussions, helping participants understand the multifaceted nature of cultural landscapes and their preservation.
- ✓ Encouraged participants to adopt practices that protect and enhance cultural landscapes, fostering a sense of responsibility and stewardship.

SWOC ANALYSIS

Strengths:

- Students' passion and concern for cultural and environmental preservation make them highly engaged participants.

- Youth engagement can inspire broader community involvement and long-term commitment to preserving cultural landscapes.
- The seminar serves as a valuable educational resource, providing comprehensive information on the interaction between culture and environment.
- Encourages collaboration among students, fostering teamwork and shared responsibility for preserving cultural landscapes.

Weaknesses:

- Limited resources can affect the scope and scale of the event.
- Maintaining participant engagement throughout the seminar, especially during lengthy presentations or discussions, can be challenging.

Opportunities:

- The seminar provides an excellent opportunity to educate the future generation about the importance of cultural landscapes.
- Equipped with knowledge, participants can become informed advocates and agents of change in their communities.

Challenges:

- Organizing speakers, securing a suitable venue, promoting the event, and coordinating various logistical aspects can be challenging and time-consuming.
- Ensuring that attendees follow up with meaningful actions after the seminar can be a challenge.

Conclusion:

The student seminar on "Cultural Landscapes: Interactions Between People and Their Environment" holds significant potential for educating, motivating, and empowering students to appreciate and preserve cultural landscapes. While it faces resource limitations and engagement challenges, careful planning and a commitment to sustainability can help overcome these obstacles. The seminar offers a unique opportunity to inspire positive change and equip future leaders with the knowledge and tools needed to protect and enhance the cultural and environmental heritage effectively.

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

The generous Hazi Abdul Kader Khan who dreamed of a college at Hariharpara, a remote village in the district of Murshidabad, donated a precious piece of land on which Hazi A. K. Khan College was established. The college began its auspicious journey on 8th September, 2008. Affiliated to the University of Kalyani, Hazi A. K. Khan College aspires to function as a centre for higher studies.

ABOUT THE STUDENT SEMINAR

The Department of Geography at Hazi A. K. Khan College is hosting a one-day Student Seminar on "Cultural Landscapes: Interactions Between People and Their Environment." Guided by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), this seminar will delve into how human societies shape and are influenced by their natural surroundings. It offers students a platform to present research, engage in discussions, and explore the vital connection between culture and environment. This event promotes academic growth and critical thinking, preparing students to tackle future challenges in geography.
