

Report on First Lecture of Departmental Lecture Series

'Gender Equality in India'

April 20, 2022

As a part of student enrichment programme, the first lecture of departmental lecture series was jointly organized by History Department & Philosophy Department on 20/04/2022. 'Gender Equality in India' was the theme of this lecture. Both teachers and students from both departments presented paper in this lecture. The Programme was started at 11.30 am with the welcome address by Dr. Piyali Dan, Assistant Professor of History Department. Opening remarks and introductory speech was given by Dr. Goutam Kumar Ghosh, Principal, Hazi A.K. Khan College. Dr. Krishnendu Munsu, IQAC coordinator, also welcomed all the teachers and students in this programme.

Dr. Munmun Dutta, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Philosophy, brilliantly spoke how gender inequality reflects in children's book and school book which creates gendered biasness among the readers.

Next, there was an informative overview on the Third Gender people, their position in our society and their constitutional rights by Dr. Piyali Dan, Assistant Professor Dept. of History.

Habibul Sheikh, Student, Dept. of History (B.A. 6th Sem History Hons) discussed about women education in India and the obstacles which a woman faces in her student life.

Anikat Sarkar, SACT, Dept. of History Department, provided a splendid lecture on women's participation in Indian politics after independence.

Asmin Saikh, SACT, Dept. of Philosophy, continued the discussion and talked over why India is lagging behind in the question of gender equality and responsibilities of students in this matter.

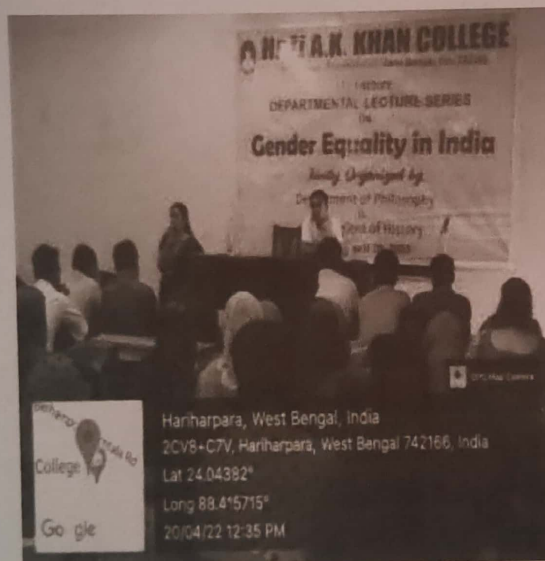

Samsuunahar Khatun, Student, Dept. of Philosophy (B.A. 6th Sem Philosophy Hons) argued that not the male members but the norms of patriarchal society are responsible for gendered concerns of our time. These norms were created both by men and women.

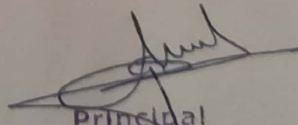

Rubina Khatun, Student, Dept. of Philosophy (B.A. 6th Sem Philosophy Hons) talked on gender equality in Indian society.

Teachers and more than hundred students from various departments of our college actively participated in this lecture. The Programme was very informative and provided the participants with enormous knowledge on this theme.

Finally, the programme was wrapped up with vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Munmun Dutta.
