Structure of the Event

About the Department

History of the Department of Education dates back to 2008, since then the Department is functioning as a premier Department of the college in offering General and Honours courses respectively. Education being an interdisciplinary subject is gaining popularity among the local aspirants. The Department is aiming to impart learning outcome based knowledge to the stakeholders with a view to inspire and nurture the young minds to bring out best educators among them.

About the Seminar

International Women's day is a global celebration, a day when we honour the remarkable contributions of women to society, culture, politics and economics. It's a day to acknowledge the countless achievements and milestones reached by women from all walks of life. It's also an opportunity to raise awareness about the ongoing struggle for gender equity, to amplify the voices of women and to celebrate the progress we've made thus far.

In many parts of the world, women have been breaking through barriers and glass ceilings, proving their capabilities in fields previously dominated by men. However, we cannot ignore that substantial gender disparities persist, whether it be in terms of pay equity, representation in leadership roles, or access to education and growth.

Throughout this seminar, we will delve into various facets of this complex issue, exploring the role of women in leadership, the importance of mentorship and the impact of gender bias on personal and professional growth.

The journey started with the General Course and afterwards, the Honours Course added extra glamour to it in 2014. Since beginning the Department has been functioning as a premier Department of the college in terms of result in specific and adopting a holistic approach in general. Education being an interdisciplinary subject, is gaining popularity among the local aspirants. Lucrative Programme Outcomes is also responsible for sound enrollment. The Department is aiming to impart learning outcome-based knowledge by adopting modern instructional methods to the stakeholders with a view to inspire and nurture the young minds to bring out best educators as well as best citizens among them.

About the Seminar

International Women's Day (IWD) is a global observance, celebrated on March 8th each year to honour and recognizes the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women around the world. It also serves as a call to action for gender equality and the advancement of women's rights.

Each year, International Women's Day is associated with a specific theme that highlights a particular aspect of gender equality or women's rights. These themes often reflect contemporary issues and challenges facing women. Some recent themes include "Choose to Challenge," "Press for Progress," and "Gender Equality Today for a Sustainable Tomorrow." The UN theme for this year's International Women's Day is "Gender equality today for a sustainable tomorrow, recognizing the contribution of women and girls around the world, who are leading the charge on climate change adaptation, mitigation, and response, to build a more sustainable future for all."

Description of the Event

The idea of celebrating the day came to the mind of the teachers of the Department considering the state and status of the girls of the college as well as those of the locality. The locality Hariharpara is a minority-based area where the main occupation of the guardians is agriculture. They are economically not so sound. As a result, child marriage is a trend of the area. Cases of human trafficking have also been reported frequently. To combat the situation, the Local administration (Block and Police Station) took a conscious step in forming a team of 'Kanyashree Joddha' (Warrior Girls) with local girls under the leadership of a Nodal Officer. This Nodal Officer, Jakirun Bibi has been invited as Chief Guest for the Seminar. Mrs. Shipra Mondal, Women and Child Development Officer of Hariharpara Block were also there as special Guest. The programme was organized under the patronage of the Principal Sir; Dr. Goutam Kumar Ghosh. The event was started with vigour with the lightening of Holy Lamp by the guests presented on stage. The convener Dr. Krishnendu Munsi, Assistant Professor and HOD, Department of Education fixed the tune of the programme in his welcome address.

Chief Guest shared her experiences as a social worker on domestic violence faced by women and. Dr. Munmun Dutta, TCS of the college also attended the seminar as Key-note Speaker. Teachers of the Department placed significant input on the theme. Some of the students presented paper and performed some cultural activities. The programme ended with an oath to protect the right of women.

SWOC of the Seminar

Strengths:

Relevance: International Women's Day is a globally recognized and celebrated event, making it highly relevant and likely to attract participants.

Networking Opportunities: The participants of the seminar can experience connectivity with each other to exchange their views over the issue.

Inspirational Content: Inspirational speech of the speakers and content can motivate and empower attendees.

Advocacy Platform: The seminar can serve as a platform for advocating women's rights and gender equality, allowing for meaningful discussions and calls to action.

Weaknesses:

Resource Intensive: Limitation of money and manpower is an issue here.

Limited Reach: Depending on the event's scale, it may have a limited reach and impact compared to larger, more widely publicised events.

Attendance: The seminar has suffered from poor attendance of the target group. Lack of awareness is a. the cause behind this.

Opportunities:

Educational Impact: The seminar provides an opportunity to educate participants about women's issues, gender equality, and the importance of women's rights.

Advocacy and Activism: It can inspire attendees to become advocates for gender equality, creating a ripple effect of positive change in their communities and workplaces.

Collaborations: The event can lead to potential collaborations with organizations (Government and Non-Government) and individuals who share similar goals.

Challenges:

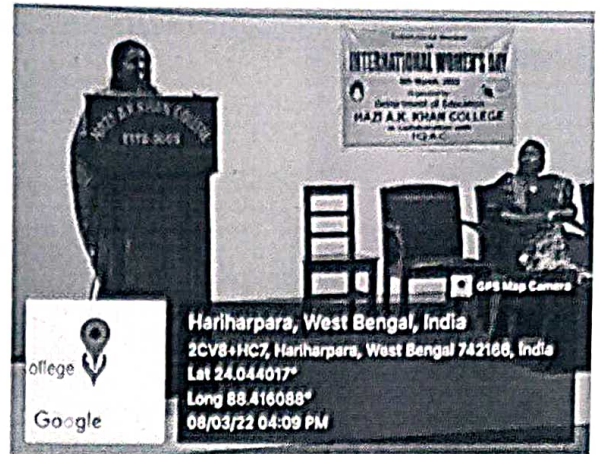

Diverse Attendees: Tailoring the content to suit the diverse backgrounds and interests of attendees is a challenge.

Budget Constraints: Managing this type of event in a limited budget is a challenge.
